

MIC Exemption from Compulsory Schooling Procedures

Information for Parents

What is an exemption and why do I need it?

Every parent of a child of compulsory school age or a young person in the compulsory participation phase has a legal obligation to ensure their child is enrolled and attending school.

Compulsory schooling commences when a child is at least 6 years and 6 months old and ends when they turn 16 or complete Year 10, whichever is sooner. An exemption from compulsory schooling is not required if the student is enrolled in the Preparatory Year.

Parents can apply for an exemption from this obligation when their child cannot attend or it would be unreasonable in all the circumstances for their child to attend school for a period of more than 10 consecutive school days.

Situations where an application for an exemption may be made include:

- Illness
- Family reasons
- Cultural or religious reasons

If your child is exempted from compulsory schooling, you are excused from your obligation in relation to compulsory schooling or compulsory participation.

The school principal or your child's teacher is not responsible for providing an educational program to your child during this exemption.

Who decides to grant or not grant an exemption?

Non-state school principals have the authority to approve exemptions of up to and including 110 school days in a calendar year that do not cause the total period of exemptions granted in the year to exceed 100 school days.

Any exemption application for a period of more than 110 school days or that would cause the total period of exemptions granted in a year to exceed 110 school days is decided by the Manager, Office of Non-state Education.
